

CONSTRUCTION MANPOWER DEVELOPMENT FOUNDATION

FACT SHEET

MASONRY/CONCRETING WORKS

Masonry Works

Course Description:

A seminar/workshop designed for construction supervisors who are interested in knowing the standard practices in the implementation of masonry works. This seminar was developed to serve as a guide on a project level for target participants with the hope of promoting quality, safety and improving their productivity.

Course Objectives:

At the end of the seminar / workshop the participants are expected to be able to supervise the ff.:

1. Proportioning mortar ingredients for specific mix
2. Lay-out/establishment of block structure location
3. Laying block for structure
4. Preparation of concrete/masonry surfaces for plastering
5. Plastering work

Concreting Works

Course Description:

A seminar/workshop designed for construction supervisors who are interested in knowing the standard practices in the implementation of concrete works. This seminar was developed to serve as a guide on a project level for target participants with the hope of promoting quality, safety and improving their productivity.

Course Objectives:

At the end of the seminar / workshop the participants are expected to be able to supervise the ff.:

1. Preparatory work before concreting
2. Concreting operations